TOWN WILL SCARIFY AND GRADE VICTORIA STREET

At the regular meeting of the town council, held on Tuesday night, it was decided to make use of the town's grader and scarify and grade, and, where necessary, gravel Main Street within the town limits. This decision followed consideration of a fifty-fifty proposition submitted by the provincial department of public works, which the council felt they could not entertain at this time.

Present at the meeting were: Mayor Farmer; Councillors Sartoris, Patterson, Morgan, Hamilton and McVey. The minutes of previous regular meeting were adopted and read and a number of accounts were passed for payment.

The council decided to accept the offer of the Gold Creek Water & Power Company and to purchase four hydrants.

A communication from Ottawa in reply to one from the secretary of the river cribbing, was ordered filed. The letter stated that the matter was referred to the department's engineer, who would be on the ground shortly.

A communication from Mr. J. T. Lieberghall, treasurer of the George Lieberghall fund, thanked the council for their generous donation of $25. The letter stated that the sum of $25 per week was being forwarded to George, who was doing from 40 to 60 miles per day in the transcontinental walk.

Communication from Mr. J. E. Robertson, of the public works department, Edmonton, re agreement for grading main street through the town, was ordered filed.

Upon motion by Councillor Hamilton, the council decided to take immediate action to improve Victoria and other streets within the town.

Letter was received from Edmonton in connection with the Mrs. Ross sell case, and was ordered referred to Mr. J. E. Gillis for advice.

Application of Hop Lee for a restaurant license in connection with the Alberta hotel, was approved.

Applications of Tony Stella and Alex. Morency for water connections, were also recommended.

Permission was granted Mr. Mark Sartoris to erect a second gasoline service tank near his premises at the corner of Ninth Avenue and Victoria Street.

Council decided to dispose of five ordinary chairs and the mayor's chair to a bidder for the sum of ten dollars, the terms stating that the said purchaser was to have and to hold same for a period of not less than 999 years. The remainder of the old chairs will be kept for the benefit of the fans.

A piece of land opposite the Robinson's residence on Seventh Avenue north was leased to Albert Biegan for a nominal rental for gardening purposes.

The next meeting of the council promises to be a lengthy one, as the new upholstered chairs will likely be in use.

The attraction at the Orpheum theatre on Saturday night will be "Passion," the big spectacular production of the world's most daring adventures. Children under sixteen are excluded. On Friday and Saturday of next week, the attraction will be "Wild Geese," an epochal play, directed by Phil Stone.

MOTHER OF MR. ERIC MUNCASTER PASSES IN CALGARY

Mrs. Muncaster, wife of Rev. Capt. W. H. Muncaster, of 627 First Avenue northwest, died Wednesday, at the General Hospital. Mrs. Muncaster had lived in Calgary for the past four years, her husband previously having been a minister in southern Alberta, and is especially known in the vicinity of Bragg Creek, where Mrs. Muncaster was well known for her gracious service in the various charges where her husband served. Mrs. Muncaster was very well known in Calgary as a war worker. Her husband and two of her sons served in the war.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters in the old country and Mrs. Leo Burby, of Bragg Creek, and by three sons, J. W. Muncaster, of Red Deer, who won a D.C.M. at Courcellette; Eric Muncaster, vice-principal of the Blairmore high school, and A. E. Muncaster in England, who was an air pilot during the war.

Mrs. Muncaster was a distinguished scholar of the Edinburgh Merchant Company's school, winning the Queen's scholarship, being first in Edinburgh and second in Scotland. Mrs. and Mr. Muncaster celebrated their golden wedding during September.

"My dear," said one, "it is patriotic duty to save every cent. I cut down my cook ten dollars at once, and changed my dressmaker." Her voice fell. "My dear, there is a wonderful German woman on the south side—I will give you her address—and she made me a stunning little afternoon dress, with so much hand-work on it, for ten dollars. Madam Frochette would have charged thirty-five. She is a positive find. She's frightened to death that she will lose her trade, and so has cut her prices away down. We're keeping it among ourselves, my dear. You know some of the L.O.D.'s would be up in arms if they knew. They say we should patronize our own, but my dear, the German woman has to live."

When Helmi walked wearily back to the "North Star" that night she was beginning to wonder if to bring a child into the world were not the great transgression for which there could be no pardon. Only the thought of the blessed shelter of her room, and the warm-hearted Irish family who had befriended her kept her heart from despair. Mrs. Corbett had not

Firestone
Tread is Scientifically Designed

When Firestone engineers were developing the Balloon Tire they found it necessary to design a tread altogether different from that required by High Pressure Tires.

The Firestone tread was not designed with large, massive projections for appearance as is the case with the tread of other tires. On the contrary, the projections of the cross-and-square tread are small and the rider stripe narrow, permitting the tread to yield to irregularities and cling to the road, giving the greatest non-skid surface. This tough, pliable tread has the wear-resisting qualities that give thousands of extra miles of service and save you money.

Your nearest Firestone Dealer will gladly supply your needs and give you the better service that goes with these better tires.

thought it was so terrible. She had praised little Lili, and Rose and Danny were getting marbles now from their children in the block for a-bok at the child.

The traffic was congested at the corner of First and Jasper. A Blue Line car waited for the rush of passengers homeward bound, and a coal wagon, lumbering past, narrowly escaped a closed motor which had dashed by disregarding the traffic law. A newboy in an overcoat much too long for him shouted "Evening Journal, all about the suicide."

Two men, waiting to get across, were talking about it. "She took a room at the St. Petersburg . . . left her baby there."

Helmi shuddered and hurried. She wanted to feel the little warm cheek against her own, and listen to the regular breathing, and get back the confidence she had lost. There must be someone in this city who would let her work.

The next day Miss Ritchie had an address for her. The lady there wanted someone to come by the day and go home at night. Helmi set out at once, taking a street car to save time. When she arrived she found that the lady had already secured a helper for the day.

After Helmi had gone the lady remarked to her friend that the girl whom Miss Ritchie had sent looked rather pale, and she wished she had given her a street car ticket. The friend advised her not to worry over it—"don't do a brisk walk would do the girl good."

Helmi walked slowly over the long bridge, whose great iron pillars frowned coldly at her. On the river below men were drawing deluge-beds of ice, glistening blue against the white snow. They looked so warm and happy in their fur coats. Helmi stopped for a moment to watch them, but soon hurried on for it made her dizzy to look down, and yet if drew her back again in a horrible way that made her heart beat sickeningly. She compelled herself to think of little Lili's pink fingers, with their long, tapering nails, and the satiny feel of her little cheeks.

Helmi knew there were kind women in the city; there were women like Miss Abbie and Miss Rodgers, and men like Mr. Terry and the Doctor. She would not give up—two days was not long to be looking.

When Helmi got back to the Bureau Miss Ritchie's assistant was there, a young lady with a metallic voice and stiff white collar which seemed to choke her. She motioned Helmi to sit down.

Helmi laid her purse on her knee and leaned back against the wall. Such a weariness came over her that even the hard seat could not prevent sleep. She was awakened by the metallic voice of the assistant and sprang up in confusion. It was near closing time and the seats were empty. Then she noticed that her purse was gone. The blood rushed to her head and it seemed as if something snapped. She hunted wildly, taking in her own language excitedly.

"The metallic voice was saying: 'We cannot be responsible for property—you should have held on to your purse—was there much in it?'"

"All that I have in the world," said Helmi brokenly.

"Too bad," came from the stiff collar, "but you can't blame us."

Helmi walked down the street empty handed and distraught. She had a desire to tear her hair—to scream—to break something—to kill someone. It couldn't, couldn't, couldn't—she had lost her seventeen dollars, her marriage certificate—God could not be so cruel.

A man was speaking at the corner of the street, catching the six o'clock crowd. Helmi could not make her way through the mob, and so found these words beating in upon her through the confusion of street sounds: "Canada calls you, as it has called me. Canada is good enough to fight for—don't fall her now in her need. How would you like to be ruled by Germany? How would you like to bow the knee to Kaiser Wilhelm? Think of our lives here in Canada, where we are free as the air we breathe, with all our wealth of wheat, fields, oil wells, mines and forests, enough for all enough for ever—yours and mine. Canada, the land of plenty, is our country. Let us fight for it—the land of the maple leaf, where there is room enough and work enough for everyone."

A shift in the crowd revealed the speaker's face. Helmi remembered him—it was Major Gowssett, the man who had been with Colonel Blackwood. Black rage filled Helmi's heart. Oh, the liar! how could he say there is work in Canada, for everybody? There's nothing in Canada but heart-break! Clenching her empty hands in an agony of hopeless rage—"He's a liar," she cried aloud, "don't listen to him!"

Someone tapped her arm. "None of that, my girl," said a deep voice.

AVOID IMITATIONS

Looking up, Helmi saw a big policeman shaking his head warningly at her. She turned and ran. Fear gave fleetness to her feet—she dared not look behind—it seemed as if the whole police force were in pursuit. Heavy steps pounded behind her. At the corner of Nansao Street a sign in a window glared at her, a sign in black letters on a blue card. Helmi read it aloud in her eagerness, then darted in the door.

"GIRL WANTED"

said the sign. Pale and trembling, Helmi approached the desk.

"Do you want a girl? Will you take me?" she asked, before she noticed the person who sat there.

A tall, old Chinaman rose from his high stool. "You wasiee dish, cook, waitie table?" he asked.

"I will do anything," said Helmi; "give me a chance."

"Sure, you nice little girl; old Sam give you chance. Want girl for night—seven till twelve every night. Nice little parties—lots of nice fellows come eat at old Sam's—like nice little girl carry chop suey—make nice in white apron, little cap."

"I'll work hard if you'll give me a chance," said Helmi.

And so it happened that when Major Gowssett, who was recruiting for the Canadian Army, came in after a late meeting the next night for a cup of coffee and a sandwich, he saw Helmi carrying the trays from the kitchen.

She was dressed very smartly in her black dress with white apron and cap, and carried the trays with the old air of aloofness.

Deeply concerned as Major Gowssett was over the dishonoring of the Belgian women—and he spoke of them with deep feeling every night in his recruiting speeches; indeed, with an almost fatherly solicitude—he did not hesitate to tell Helmi's story now to his young officer friend.

"Our naughty looking waitress is a lady with a past—a real purple past," he said, in a low voice. I could swear to that head of hair—purple place, and that Boudicca manner, though she was not looking quite so haughty nor quite so avowed when I saw her last—she evidently has gotten over her trouble and is back to her old haunts. No decent girl works in a Chinese restaurant at night. Old Blackwood, at Baumers, had the whole story in a newspaper and showed it in front of her."

The younger man looked after Helmi as she walked noiselessly past them with her tray of dishes. "She's a good-looking girl," he said, "and certainly has not the face of a crook."

"Look out Jim," laughed the Major. "Go slow on this girl, she's a wild cat."

"She would heed to be," said the young officer, "if she wants to keep straight. The girl is earning an honest living here now, anyway. Why not let her past go?"

But in spite of this rebuke, which made Major Gowssett shrug his beefy shoulders, he took time the next day to call on Helmi. "You're a good-looking girl," he said, "and certainly has not the face of a crook."

But in spite of this rebuke, which made Major Gowssett shrug his beefy shoulders, he took time the next day from his arduous task of recruiting for the 67th Battalion to write to his friend Col. Blackwood, at Baumers: "I saw the Finn girl again. She is in a Chinese restaurant, working at night," and he underlined the last three words.

A Water Lily

O Star on the breast of the river
O marvel of bloom and grace!
Did you fall straight down from heaven.

Out of the sweetest place?
You are white as the thoughts of an angel.

Your heart: is steeped in the sun:
Did you grow in the golden city,
My pure and radiant one?
Nay, nay, I fell not out of heaven,
None gave me my saintly white,
I slowly grew among the blackness,
Far down in the dreary night;
From the ooze of the silent river
I won my glory and grace;
White souls fall not, O my poet,
They rise to the sweetest place.

—Mary Frances Butts.

If we could only think of the pain and the suffering, the unpleasant surroundings and all the things that make living so hard, as the bed out of which the lily hearts may come, and with our hidden hearts golden and glowing, just climb up slowly through the deep waters, until the soul shall open out all white and lovely under the full sunlight of God, would it not pay for all we have to bear?—Mary Lowe Dickenson.

Teeth and Health

Issued by The Canadian Dental Hygienic Council and Published by The Saskatchewan Dental Society

WHAT LOOSENS THE BABY TEETH

You have watched in your small son these little teeth that were once so firmly rooted, gradually loosen and begin to wobble. For fear lest he might swallow one you tie a string round it and jerked it out; or else you just picked it off, and finding no root, you wondered what had been holding it in place, and you asked yourself was it always so.

Now as a matter of fact, the "baby teeth," upon eruption, did possess a normal root; then where has it gone? Well you see, that as the incoming permanent tooth begins to develop and push up, it must find room. So nature removes these little temporary teeth through absorption of the root, allowing the crown to fall away—a process that is attended with no pain or outward disturbances whatsoever.

But occasionally it happens that this natural process of root absorption is retarded, or it may be, does not occur at all, with the result that the little tooth does not loosen by the time the shedding process should take place.

This is due probably, to the death of its pulp or nerve, preventing a quick natural absorption, or it may be, to the tardy development of the replacing permanent or to its eruption into an abnormal position, or possibly to the non-development of what should have been the succeeding tooth.

In any case, your dentist will be best able to advise you as to whether this unloosed "baby tooth" should come out now or at a later date.

Aerial Views of Alberta

Photographs of Northern Terrain To Be Taken From Aeroplanes.

Aerial surveys of the north country, up at the top of Alberta, will be commenced this summer. It is expected that a programme covering three or four years will be undertaken, and a beginning will be made this season in the vicinity of Lake Athabasca, coming south along the riverways to McMurray.

Flying machines, fully manned and outfitted for the work, will be employed, and complete photographic and topographical surveys of the area will be made.

A GOOD RESOLUTION

I promise myself and my business never to let misguided conservatism quench intelligent enthusiasm; to never underestimate the value of friendship; to remember that the boy of today is the man of tomorrow, the small buyer of this year the large buyer of next year; to be guided by the certainty that every piece of printing bearing the name of my firm is telling someone what kind of an organization we are.—Stephens Press.

ONCE DOWN-AND-OUTS
GIFT TO SALVATION ARMY

The supreme court at Melbourne, Australia, has upheld the will of the late Mr. Joseph Gill, a bachelor, wool broker, who left an estate worth over $400,000 to the Salvation Army. The judge declared that the property could be transferred to General Booth on behalf of the Salvation Army's branches at Sydney, Melbourne and Goulburn. Mr. Gill bequeathed $40,000 to relatives in England. His relatives contested the will.

"The bequest is undoubtedly the biggest single gift we have ever had," said an official at the headquarters of the Salvation Army. Mr. Gill died in 1926. Years ago, he was befriended when down and out at a Salvation Army shelter in Australia. His gift shows that he did not forget.

WHAT IS THIS GOLF?

(By A. G. Frohman)

Golf is a form of work made expensive enough for a rich man to enjoy it. It is physical and mental exercise made attractive by the fact that you have to dress for it in a $200,000 club house.

Golf is what letter-carrying, ditch digging and carpet beating would be if these three tasks had to be performed on the same hot afternoon in hort pants and colored socks by gouty-looking gentlemen who required a different implement for every mood.

Golf is the simplest-looking game in the world when you decide to take it up, and the toughest looking after you have been at it for ten or twelve years.

It is probably the only known game a man can play as long as a quarter of a century and then discover that it was too deep for him in the first place.

The game is played on carefully selected grass with little white balls and as many clubs as the player can afford. These balls cost from seventy-five cents to $25.00, and it is possible to support a family of ten people (all adults) for five months on the money represented by the balls lost by some golfers in a single afternoon.

A golf course has eighteen holes, seventeen of which are unnecessary and put in to make the game harder. A "hole" is a tin cup in the centre of the "green." A "green" is a small parcel of grass costing about $1.50 a blade and usually located between a brook and a couple of apple trees or a lot of unfinished excavations.

The idea is to get the golf ball from a given point into each of the eighteen cups in the fewest strokes and the greatest number of words.

The ball must not be thrown, pushed or carried. It must be propelled by about $200 worth of curious looking implements, especially designed to provoke the owner.

Each implement has a specific purpose, and ultimately some golfers get to know what that purpose is. They are the exceptions.

After each hole has been completed the golfer counts his strokes. Then he subtracts six and says, "Made that in five." That's one above par. Shall we play for fifty cents on the next hole, too, Ed?

After the final, or eighteenth hole, the golfer adds up his score and stops when he has reached eighty-seven. He then has a swim, a pint of gin, sings "Sweet Adeline" with six or eight other lads, and calls it the end of a perfect day.

NO EPHS NOR CAYS

The following, clipped from the Rocky Mountain Cyclone, shows how completely the English language is adapted for sudden and unforeseen emergencies:

"We begin the publication of the Rocay Mountain Cyclone with some phew difficulties. The type pounders phrom whom we got our outphit phailed to supply us with any ephs or cays, and it will be phour or phive weex bephore we can get any. The mistaque was not phound out till a day or two ago. We have ordered the missing letters, and will have to get along without them till they come. We don't lipse the loox of this variety of spelling any better than our readers, but mistapues will happen in the best ov regulated phamiles, and iph the ph's, x's and q's hold out for ephs and cays we shall ceep (sound the c hard) the Cyclone whirling, aphter a phasion, till the sorts arrive. It is no joque to us—it is a serious apphair."

Canada's government encourages use of electric power, particularly on farms and in small communities. Water power is developed fully to generate the current, and all are assisted in its installation. Farmers are taught to grind feed with it, pump water and do their other work. And by the way, United States farmers are urgently invited by the Canadian government to settle in Canada.—Arthur Brisbane.

Mrs. Hugh Cameron and daughter Jean, of Burnia, were visitors to Blairmore on Saturday last.

Rev: "What time should I come to-night?"
She: "Come after dinner."
He: "That's what I was coming after."

Friends will be interested to know that Mr. Glyn Thomas, of the Hillhurst branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, is organist at Knox Presbyterian church, Calgary.—Pincher Creek Echo.

Maid: "I have, madam; all but your rings and bracelets."—Passing Show.

The annual financial statement of the Crows' Nest Pass Sunday Schools Musical Festival for the year 1927-28 is now ready and will be issued as soon as accounts have been paid by advertisers in the syllabus and programme.

A local dentist says that he had an absent-minded motorist in his chair the other day.

"Will you take gas?" he asked.
"Yeah," replied the patient, "and you'd better look at the oil, too."

Rev. John H. Garden has resigned the pastorate of the United church at Pincher Creek to take charge of the United church at Hillhurst. Rev. and Mrs. Garden are returning from a visit to Toronto, where Mr. Garden attended a session of the general mission board.

Capt. Hind, of Coleman, says that if those in the Pass who have been helped by the Army would be willing to do likewise, he would be very happy to meet them. Do not wait till you die. $100 will furnish a room in the Grace Hospital or the new training garrison.

The Calgary Herald says: "Higher mathematics should be taught if for no other purpose than to fit the harassed business man for making out income tax returns." What is most needed is a postgraduate course in artistic swearing that would make an ardent golfer jealous.—Strathmore Standard.

In the absence of Rev. J. W. Smith, who was relieving Rev. J. H. Garden at Pincher Creek, the evening service at the local United church took the form of a song service, with Mr. J. R. Gresham in charge. Besides anthems by the choir, solos were rendered by Mrs. J. A. Kerr, Mrs. S. G. Bannan, Mrs. D. A. Howe and Mr. J. R. Smith.

A Calgary citizen was recently boasting to a Blairmoreite of the rapid growth of that city. "Why," he said, "Eaton's are going to build a million-dollar store here." "Ah, go on," replied the visitor. "Shure," said the booster, "and the foundation is already laid!" The Blairmore man chuckled a laugh, then ejaculated: "Ha, ha! The foundation of your post office has also been laid some fifteen years or more!"

For the first time since services began in St. Stanislaus church at Burnia, the first Communion class was held on Sunday last. The following children received their first communion: Reta Boutry, Marion Rinaldi, Louise Collette, Candia Collette, Peter Collette, Steve Muska, Annie Pionek, Rose Pionek, Frank Pionek, Olympia Rinaldi, Helen Muska, Genevieve Yakubiec, Pauline Lisosky, Johnny Dobek, Andrew Melsaacs.

Music for the High Mass was supplied by the Hillcrest choir.

When four-year-old Harry went over to play in his friend Robert's yard one morning, the latter excitedly announced:

"God sent me a little sister last night!"

With a shriek of joy Harry started home, yelling over his shoulder: "Maybe He brought me one, too. He was at our house this morning. I heard Daddy talking to Him when he fixed the furnace!"

ERSKINE SIX

Manufacture... High Quality Materials... Rigid Inspections
...62-mile speed later!

You need not be an Engineer to read between the lines!

Being able to drive your new Erskine Six 40 miles an hour the first day is convenient. But this is more important—it proves that here are precision manufacture and engineering genius. Without the high quality materials, the careful inspections and the thorough dynamometer tests the Erskine engine receives, this first-day motor-freedom would be as impossible as it is in other cars.

These same precautions give the new Erskine Six its ability to deliver 62 miles an hour with such velvet ease later. Or to travel 54 miles an hour for 24 consecutive hours, as did a stock Erskine Six sedan—a record for stock cars in its price class.

Read between the lines—the facts are evident. Remember, behind the new Erskine Six is the name Studebaker, which for 76 years has stood for fine transportation.

Who Wants War?

The statement has been made so frequently, and with such vigor that it is the capitalist class of the world which has been responsible for war between nations, that many people have become convinced of its truth. And it is probably true that some of the wars of the past have been the direct result of greedy men seeking to further their own selfish ends. To what extent capitalists have been responsible for past wars it would be difficult to say, but, with the experience of the last Great War, and the disastrous effects on industry and world commerce which resulted, both during the continuance of the conflict and in the years that have followed, it is safe to say that Capital has learned its lesson, and today the whole influence of the financial and industrial world is thrown into the scale in favor of continuing peace.

A strange picture is, however, presented by the one country in which those who are loudest in their outcry against the capitalist class are in full control, namely, Russia. In no other country is Capital so strongly denounced as in Soviet Russia. The Soviet leaders regard Capital as the source of all the world's difficulties and sorrow. At its door they lay the major crimes of the world. The revolution under Lenin and Trotsky had for its object, not the overthrow of the Czarist Government, for it had already fallen, but the overthrow and complete destruction of Capital, and in their campaign against the capitalist system they held it to be responsible for war and the sufferings and losses which war always entails.

Today, however, under the leadership of the Soviet, Russia is the most militaristic country in the world—the one chief place of danger to the peace of the world. Recently a first-hand picture of the military spirit of Russia was given by one who is friendly to the professed ideals of the Soviet, Mr. William Wellock, Socialist M.P. for the Stourbridge Division of Worcestershire, England, in the British Parliament. He makes some interesting disclosures in a recent article on "Soviet Russia of Today," which appeared in a recent issue of the "Socialist Review." There he admits that the Soviet dictatorship "possesses, even boasts of, a most efficient secret service, and is responsible for creating a military spirit that gives one food for reflection."

Moreover, he says, "Girls as well as boys are learning to handle rifles, and girls' corps for this purpose are being formed in those otherwise excellent institutions, workers' or trade union clubs. Indeed, except during the World War, I have never seen such military enthusiasm as I witnessed in Russia during my recent visit." Mr. Wellock mentions a military demonstration by half a million young people of the International Youth Movement, and observes: "If after the enthusiasm and determination I then witnessed, Russia is ever attacked I pity the army that comes out against her, for no capitalist government in the whole world can put an army into the field with a modicum of the enthusiasm possessed by Young Russia. It was very significant."

Thus, while professing peace at Geneva, and submitting proposals that all the nations of the world totally disarm, the Soviet leaders are engaged in the task of exciting military enthusiasm throughout the length and breadth of Russia, and training the youth of the land, girls as well as boys, for war. In the face of this duplicity, and with full knowledge of what Russia is attempting in China, and, in fact, in all countries where a flogging of unrepentant, how can the other nations of the world scrap all their armaments, as many, if not most of them, would like to do? Russia is, in actual fact, the greatest stumbling block to world disarmament, and notwithstanding all the pious professions of the Soviet leaders, constitutes the outstanding threat against future peace among the nations.

Delay in Delivery

Postal Note Issued in 1910 Cashed

After 18 years, a Postal Note issued in 1910, cashed at several other points in the Balkans and long rests at Ottawa, New York, and other likely points, a postal note for $27, issued at Cranbrook in 1910, was recently cashed at Cranbrook, Post Office by the owner, Frank Kenik, now employed locally, though the note was sent him 18 years ago by his brother, John. At the saving account rate of interest the holder of the long overdue note is out over $20.

Payments For Beets

Cheques amounting to over $18,000 have been distributed among beet growers of Southern Alberta by the Canadian Sugar Factories Limited. This represents an additional payment of 60 cents a ton for 1927 beets, bringing the total amount paid for last year's deliveries up to $7 per ton.

Magistrate: "Did you have an assistant in this robbery?"

Prisoner: "No, I 'ad one once, but I 'ad to dismiss 'im—he was dishonest!"

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because it has no harmful, irritating effects, neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 60 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 60 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

Premier Baldwin Never Contributes To Press

Has Never Been Asked But Hopes He Will Be

That Premier Baldwin occupies a somewhat unique distinction among cabinet ministers in that he has never had a single offer of any kind to contribute to the press, was revealed by Mr. Baldwin in a speech at a luncheon given to Viscount Durham. "I might produce something," the Premier said, smilingly, "but if not worth a penny a line might at least be worth a penny a mile," he remarked. When he retired from public life, he added, he would like to feel that one kind hearted person had once made him an offer so that he could see his own stuff in print with his name under it.

RHEUMATIC PAINS DUE TO THIN BLOOD

Relief Comes Through the Use Of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

The most a rheumatic sufferer can hope for in rubbing something on the swollen, aching joints is a little relief, and all the while the trouble becomes more and more chronic. It is now known that rheumatism is rooted in the blood, and that as the trouble goes on the blood becomes still further thin and watery. To get rid of rheumatism, therefore, you must go to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved so beneficial when taken for this trouble. They make new, rich blood which expels the poisonous acid and the rheumatism disappears.

There are thousands of former rheumatic sufferers in Canada, now well and strong, who thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that they are now free from the aches and pains of this dreaded trouble. One of these is Mrs. W. F. Tait, McKellar, Ont., who says: "I am one of the willing ones to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After lying in bed for seven weeks suffering untold agony from inflammatory rheumatism, relief finally came through the use of this medicine. I could not move in bed only as they lifted me, and I could only sleep when opiates were given me. The medical treatment was taking seemed of no avail."

Then I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon I began to get relief. After taking one or eight boxes the rheumatism was banished and I had never felt better in my life. It is several years since this happened and I have had no return of the trouble since. I may add that I recommended the pills to two of my friends who were suffering with rheumatism, and the pills were equally effective in both cases."

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuritis, indigestion or nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Germany Shows Thanks

Is Grateful To Canada For Assistance Given To Airman

Germany has thanked Canada for the assistance rendered in behalf of the crew of the Bremen aeroplane, which blazed the east-to-west transatlantic air trail. The following message from L. Kempf, German consul-general for the Dominion, has been received by Premier King.

"I am instructed by my government to express the sincerest thanks of the government of the German Reich for all the assistance rendered to the fliers of the Bremen. My government would be grateful if you would transmit its thanks to the various government departments and to the numerous organizations and individuals who have so generously and efficiently come to the aid of the Bremen crew."

Claims Parachute Will Bring Airplanes Down

New Device If Successful Would Eliminate Risk Of Flying

All risk will be eliminated from air flying if a device now under construction proves the success its inventor confidently believes it will be. At the All-American Aircraft Show, in Convention Hall, Detroit, Major Edward L. Hoffman, of Wright Field, Dayton, announced that parachutes which will bring a plane and its passengers safely by means of a chute, will be available soon.

Major Hoffman has spent much of his 18 years of army life at McCook Field, Dayton, where he conducted experiments in connection with the parachutes now used by the U.S. army.

"We have been experimenting along the lines of devising a parachute for an entire plane," he said. "The pilot would pull a lever, releasing a chute that would bring the plane safely to earth. As a result of experiments, I have brought down a 3,600-pound weight at a reasonable rate of speed with a 60-foot diameter parachute. Since the plane to be used in actual tests weighs 1,400 pounds, I am quite certain the results will be successful. I expect we will make the first tests at Dayton within the next two months."

"The parachute to be used will take up four cubic feet of space and weigh not more than 120 pounds. In heavier planes more than one parachute would be used."

Low Grade Wheat Marketed In Japan

Profitable Outlet In Orient For Millers' Last Year

Speaking at Portage in Prairie, George Melvor, general sales manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Growers, Ltd., the central selling agency for the Canadian pools, pointed out that out of a total world crop of about four billions of bushels, only 800,000,000 were usually exported to world markets, and Canada supplied over a third of that. The pool itself handled about a quarter of it, and therefore was able to have quite an influence on price levels, this being particularly true because Canada is the only country selling hard spring wheat, now that Russia is out of the picture for the time being.

Mr. Melvor also mentioned that the pool had established a market in Italy for Canadian durum instead of selling them, as formerly, to American exporters for mixing. Instead of raising the quality of American durum exports, Canadian durum now brought a premium straight back to the producer in Canada. Another example of the advantage of a strong central selling agency was shown in Alberta, where there was a lot of feed wheat last year that looked like being hard to get rid of. A trial shipment of 50 tons was sent to Japan, as a result over a million bushels of low-grade wheat has been sold at that market this year.

France Paying War Debt

Britain Advised That Bill For 1928 Will Be Met

A brief announcement by the British Government that France intends to pay $5,000,000 on its war debt to Britain during the current year indicates that France is adhering to the debt agreement of 1926, notwithstanding the fact that it is as yet unratified by the French Senate.

By agreement, the total indebtedness was fixed at £47,106,000 and a scale of annual payments was arranged.

The 1928 payment will be made in two equal installments, one on August 15, and the second on March 15, 1929, which is reckoned in the fiscal year of 1928.

Under the agreement $10,000,000 would be due in 1929, and $12,500,000 the following year.

An Oil That Is Famous—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That it has far added enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

Equals Sun's Surface Heat

Powerful Flame Radiates Light From

World's Largest Electric Lamp

Paris, Voltaire's City of Light, boasts today the most powerful flashlight lamp in the world. Its light, generated by electric current, is equal to 1,400 million candles. When we consider that 1,400 million ordinary candles, put end to end, would extend eight to ten times round the earth, and almost far enough to reach the moon, we realize how far man has traveled as light-maker since the days of the first tallow candle.

Even if medieval man had been able to manufacture 1,400 million candles and put them in 1,400 million candlesticks, the whole population of the world could not have set them alight; today a single man moves a switch, and there is a maelstrom in the ether, and the light of 1,400 million candles bursts into flame.

So powerful is the lamp in Paris that from the top of Eiffel Tower it would be visible for hundreds of miles; and if the Eiffel Tower were twice as high a man with field glasses at Vienna would be able to see it quite clearly. The heat in the centre of the electric flame which radiates the light reaches 6,000 degrees Centigrade. That is to say, it equals the heat at the surface of the sun!

C.N.R. ESTIMATES ARE APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

Ottawa.—In its final report tabled in the House, the special railway committee of the House approved the estimates of the Canadian National Railway and the Canadian Government Marine. The report says that when reductions in freight rates, increase in wages, late crop conditions and larger expenditure on maintenance of way and structures are taken into account, the result of the operations of the railway for the past year "are very satisfactory indeed."

The committee is satisfied from the evidence given that the accounts presented for the year are in accordance with the prescribed practice in railway accounting and accurately reflect the revenues received and expenditure made during the period.

The committee is further of the opinion that the amounts of $39,000,000 asked for the Canadian National, and of $188,000 asked for the Canadian Government Merchant Marine are necessary and should be passed by the House.

The committee struck a snag in its deliberations, and sat well after the usual hour of adjournment.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National, and Hon. H. H. Stevens differed sharply over the manner in which Canadian National accounts are presented.

Since the passage of the Maritime Freight Rates Act, the result of operations on the Eastern Lines had been published separately from that of the Canadian National Lines. Mr. Stevens held that while under the Maritime Freight Rates act the accounts of Eastern lines had to be separate, the result should be included in the main report. "The accounts as presented," Mr. Stevens declared, "do not give the whole situation fairly and accurately."

Sir Henry Thornton differed. He said that the board of directors of the Canadian National had followed what they believed to be the requirements of the Canadian National. He held that it would be unjust and unfair that the Canadian National should have to include in the operating results of the system the deficits on Western Lines brought about by freight reductions under the Maritime Freight Rates Act.

The report was not adopted till after two and a half hours' discussion.

Grants Will Be Discontinued

Federal Assistance For Vocational Training Ends With Fiscal Year

Ottawa.—The grants of the Dominion Government to technical education will be discontinued at the end of the present fiscal year. Premier Mackenzie King told a large delegation which waited on the Government to urge that the federal assistance be continued.

The grants were begun in 1919, and the act provided that they be continued for a period of ten years. The prime minister said that as education was a matter solely within the jurisdiction of the provincial governments and the obligations of the federal government were too heavy, his government had come to the conclusion that the assistance to the provinces for technical education would not be continued when the present act expires.

The government would consider the cases of provinces which had been late in starting vocational training and therefore had not received the full benefit of the grants the act provided, these being allowed further time.

Think British 'Envy' Should Be Canadian

British Labor M.P. Suggests Dominion Citizen For Post At Washington

London.—Appointment of a Canadian as principal representative of Great Britain at Washington is a suggestion made in a book, "The Freedom of the Seas," just published by Lt.-Commander J. M. Kenworthy, Labor M.P., and George Young, once attaché to the late Lord Bryce, in the British embassy at Washington.

Referring to the naval differences between the two countries the authors state that in their belief the conflicting policies can be reconciled. They continue:

"There is now a new diplomatic channel and democratic contact in the Canadian diplomatic representative and his staff at Washington. Canada is a bond for peace between Great Britain and the United States and her mission in Washington must become a bridge for political confidence and co-operation."

"We might indeed do worse than persuade the Canadian Government to release an important citizen of the Dominion to represent England and the Empire at Washington when next there is a vacancy at the British embassy, and let the foreign office be represented by an official who would be a junior to the representative."

Gen Currie Receives Verdict

Jury Finds Article Criticizing Sir Arthur Was Libellous

Cobourg, Ont.—By a poll of eleven to one, a civilian jury rendered a verdict against W. T. R. Preston, writer of the article which appeared on June 23, 1927, in the Port Hope Guide, entitled "Mons." and against the publisher of the paper, F. W. Wilson. The jury, after four hours' deliberation, found that publication of this article was libellous and they awarded General Sir Arthur Currie, who was the aggrieved party in the suit, damages in the sum of $500. The former commander of the Canadian corps had claimed $50,000.

The trial opened on April 16, in the Ontario supreme court, at Cobourg before Mr. Justice Rose and a jury, the hearing of evidence and addresses to the jury lasting well in to 14 days. During the course of the testimony the events of the stirring days which closed the campaign in Belgium and France, were gone over by scores of witnesses, including a number whose names have become famous for deeds of gallantry and heroic leadership.

Sir Arthur was represented by W. N. Tilley, K.C., Toronto, and F. W. Wilson by Frank Regan, of Toronto. W. T. R. Preston conducted his own case.

Commencing Work On Peace River Highways

Alberta Ministers Made Inspection Trip Over Proposed Route

Edmonton.—Hon. O. L. McPherson and J. D. Robertson, minister and deputy minister of public works, have returned from an inspection trip over the proposed route of the Peace River Highways. They went as far north as High Prairie, visiting a number of points where road construction details required decision before the season's work begins.

Work on the new highway into the North is to be commenced at once and will be pushed forward as rapidly as conditions will permit during the spring and summer. A working crew has already made camp in the Lesser Slave Lake region, where a considerable amount of clearing is to be done for the new road.

Mr. McPherson is hopeful of better conditions than last year, which in turn will make possible a better construction record for the season.

Leaves Life Job In Canton

Former Edmonton Man Was Bodyguard For Late Dr. Sun Yat Sen

Canton.—Morris Cohen, famous two-gun man from Canada, who served the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen as bodyguard for the last three years of the revolutionary leader's life, has left Canton for an unnamed destination.

Of the polyglot coterie of foreigners who assembled about Dr. Sun's person in Canton—Red Russians, Americans, Germans—this burly free-handed Jewish adventurer is believed to have been the last of any prominence remaining in China. He turned up here six years ago with a letter of recommendation from revolutionary Chinese in Edmonton, Alta., whence Cohen hailed.

When the Kuomintang leader died in 1925, his will stipulated that Cohen should have a life job in the Canton Government's central bank. This he held, acting as messenger and purchasing agent for Canton officials, until he became involved in the Red uprising of last December. The upshot was his purchase of a one-way ticket from the scene of his six-year phase of his adventurous career.

His right hand is still intact, but ten operations have cut the left away. The skin effect which develops cancer is responsible. His hip also is affected. Physicians have warned Mr. Bourdon that his martyrdom will be fatal, but the radiologist's answer is: "My comrades in the war made greater sacrifices for humanity."

EGYPT MUST REMAIN UNDER BRITISH CONTROL

London.—"I think the interests of Great Britain in Egypt make it impossible to contemplate the occupation of Egypt by any other power than ourselves," Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign secretary, asserted in the House of Commons after making public Britain's reply to the Egyptian government's note announcing its intention not to proceed this session with the assembly bill to which Britain had objected.

The Egyptian note dispelled for the time being at least the crisis brought about by the Egyptian government's intention to enact the measure and also resulted in the countermanding of instructions which it had previously been thought necessary to give to certain British warships.

"It will always be necessary," Sir Austen declared, "for this and other governments in the future to maintain the principles of the declaration of 1922 and as we forbid other powers to interfere we must also take measures to secure the safety of citizens of those powers as well as our own nationals."

The foreign secretary's statement came in answer to a question by Will Thorne, Labor, Plaislow, who enquired whether Sir Austen thought the declaration of 1922 would stand for ever.

Washington Grooms Fliers

Crew Of Bremen Flying With Distinguished Frequent Crosses
Washington, D.C.—The crew of the Bremen was welcomed to Washington as pioneers whose feat symbolized the ever-narrowing distance between the nations of the world.

Coming by train in the early hours of the morning, the German-Irish trio which accompanied the first non-stop flight of an airplane over the North Atlantic from the east, received the Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg's greetings of the nation to supplement the tumultuous welcome they were given in New York City.

The three fliers, Von Huenefeldt, Filzmauer and Koehn, were greeted as men who had "marked another milestone in the path of man's conquest over the forces of nature."

After Secretary Kellogg had greeted them Ambassador Von Fitzwiz, of Germany, and Hon. Timothy Smiddy, minister of the Irish Free State, stepped forward to offer welcome.

Prominent among those participating in the welcoming ceremonies was Col. C. A. Lindbergh and Eddie Rickenbacker, the U.S. war ace.

Later in the day the Bremen trio followed from President Coolidge the distinguished flying crosses awarded them by Congress.

Prepare For Night Flying

Beacons Have Been Ordered For Canadian Air Route

Ottawa.—Night flying will soon be started in aviation in Canada, according to plans being formulated by the civil aviation branch, department of national defence, for the first lighted airway in the Dominion, says the Ottawa Journal.

Plans it is understood are to be called for by the government for five giant beacon lights to be placed at intervals of 35 miles along the south shore of the St. Lawrence River from the air route from St. Hubert aerodrome, Montreal, to Lévis, Que. This will form a great part of the air mail route from Rimouski to inland points, which opened for the season on May 5.

Insulation Of West Indies Ports By U.S. Anti-Smuggling Ships Being Discussed

Washington, D.C.—The controversy between the British and United States governments over violations by the United States prohibition enforcement staff of the Bahamas agreement probably will be carried to President Coolidge.

It is rumored here that Secretary of State Kellogg has informed the treasury department which is in charge of coastguard ships that the British government is not satisfied with the explanation offered of recent invasion of British ports in the West Indies by anti-smuggling ships from the United States and that the whole question will have to be referred to the president and his cabinet.

Executive departments here will neither confirm nor deny the rumors concerning the controversy, nor will the British embassy comment.

The European population escaped. Telegraph and telephone lines were cut. Buildings were swept away and many acres of crops destroyed.

Prompt measures were taken to avoid famine in the flooded districts.

It is expected that Russian Co-operative Marketing Societies will be represented by several delegates. The Australian government and the International Institute of Agriculture will have special representatives at the conference. A number of prominent officials from the United States department of agriculture as well as representatives of a number of the large co-operative organizations in addition to delegates and officials of the United States wheat pools will be present.

Among those who have promised to attend are: Judge John D. Miller, vice-president and general counsel of the Dairyman's League and president of the National Co-operative Milk Producers Federation, New York City; John Brandt, president of the Land O'Lakes Creameries, Minneapolis; Ralph D. Merritt, managing director of the Sun-Maid Raisin Growers, Fresno, California; J. S. Montgomery, general manager of the Central Co-operative Association, St. Paul; F. M. Black, chairman of the Interior Tree Fruit and Vegetable committee of direction, Kelowna, B.C.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture for Canada; Hon. J. E. Brown, premier of Alberta; Hon. J. G. Gieseler, premier of Saskatchewan, and Hon. R. A. Hoey, who will represent the Manitoba Government, will be among the speakers.

CLAIM SETTLERS ARE BARRED BY NEW INSPECTION

Ottawa.—Canada is receiving a decreased number of British immigrants owing to the new medical inspection system. This assertion was made at session of the House Immigration enquiry by Col. J. S. Dennis, chief commissioner of colonization, Canadian Pacific Railway.

The records of his company showed a decrease of 40 per cent. in British newcomers for the four months of this year, as compared with a similar period in 1927. Col. Dennis stated.

A system of inspection of immigrants on the other side by roster doctors, under the supervision of a small body of Canadian doctors, would be resorted to by the new system of inspection by Canadian doctors only at British ports, he continued.

Col. J. Stittbarr, British army reservist, explained a system of training soldiers in agriculture for a period of six months prior to their discharge from the British army. About 35,000 soldiers were discharged annually in England. A number of them were available afterwards for agricultural employment in Canada or Australia. These men, married and single, desired a guarantee of one year's employment on arrival.

Col. Dennis was here to examine Canadian conditions which he would place before the agricultural training camps in England.

London.—While the assisted passage rates for migration to Canada are low, the restrictions on migration are severe, the Overseas Settlement committee states in its annual report, published recently.

The rule that those persons who have settled down to any other occupation than that of agriculture are not allowed to nominate families for assisted passage to the Dominion is pointed out as one of the restrictions.

The committee expressed the opinion that the restrictions might be modified to mutual advantage and hope is voiced that the nomination system might be altered so that persons who enter other occupations besides farm work.

Asks More Financial Help For Settlers

British Welfare Worker Advocates Family Re-Union Scheme

Ottawa.—"Canada must not become another melting pot; we must keep Canada British."

So stated Albert Chamberlain, president of the British Welfare and Welfare League, Toronto, in appearing before the official committee of the House considering immigration problems.

"There ought to be some financial assistance available to help British women and children to join their husbands in Canada, provided they can be taken care of on arrival," continued Mr. Chamberlain.

"There are today thousands of British men living in Canada apart from their wives and children in the Old Country and this is an undesirable condition of affairs for Canada; for the husbands and wives and for the Old Country," he said.

The British government was prepared to pay the cost of the passage in its family re-union scheme. If the Ontario and Dominion governments or other one of them were prepared to share the costs, the British government is ready to pay 50 per cent. of the cost of the scheme.

The league, Mr. Chamberlain said, could bring 50,000 British women and children to Canada annually if the proper financial system was in operation.

Would Amend Divorce Bill

Ottawa.—D. D. Woodworth, Labor member of North Centre Winnipeg, again moved in the house to amend a divorce bill. Mr. Woodworth moved vice-president and general counsel of the Dairyman's League—the custody of the child, while the father should pay $500 a year for the child's maintenance as long as the mother remained unmarried, and $200 a year if she remarried. The husband in the case should not have the right to remarry again and if he went through the process of marriage would be subject to seven years' imprisonment.

Transferred To Ottawa

Rome.—The Italian consulate-general at Montreal has been transferred to Ottawa. It was announced by the Italian foreign office recently. The move is considered of diplomatic importance. The Montreal office becomes a consulate. A vice-consulate has been instituted at Vancouver, B.C., the announcement added.
